

The solutions to 10 clues include double letters, of which only one is recognised in the wordplay, e.g. if the answer was SCARRING the wordplay would lead to SCARING and for LADDER would lead to LADER. The 10 letters you therefore have to add are an anagram of a person who is well-known to solvers of this puzzle (4,6). Solvers should enter the name.

Across

- 1 Commissioned roster I smartly tore up (4,4)
- 5 Actor somehow has put tree back (6)
- 9 One competed after companion hurried up (8)
- 10 Home cooking often means exotic toppings for what one receives (6)
- 12 One putting up with voter switching from left to right (7)
- 13 Taken in by setter's plot to cover up unfinished bit (7)
- 14 Mature sow carrying a child (8)

- 16 Problem keeping Popish Plot ultimately quiet (5)
- 19 Fraction of surgical procedure no longer open (5)
- 20 Against that is two different notes and a couple of directions for a sort of waltz (8)
- 22 Endorse business put back together (7)
- 24 Despatch returned by soldier (7)
- 26 One charged after good deal for beauty treatment (6)
- 27 Terrible red claws drawn in a hurry (8)
- 28 Gets angry as one bows out (6)

- 29 Argentina's best osteopath uses dangerous substance (8)

Down

- 1 Article about communist German city (6)
- 2 Show featured in state outlet (4,5)
- 3 Dusty green eggs officer carries (5)
- 4 German you managed to avoid getting a replacement for electric range (6,6)
- 6 With bank starting to open, stocks sink (9)
- 7 Doctor carries foreign character's lozenge (5)

- 8 Note about Benedictines' liberties (8)
- 11 Nonsense credits after director breaks records (12)
- 15 There's extra decay up where they put things (9)
- 17 Flyer's exam? Look through mine! (4,5)
- 18 Snaps about torture by the French (8)
- 21 Is inquisitive about daughter's many, many cats (6)
- 23 Dull friend (5)
- 25 Old enough finally to smoke a cigarette inside (2,3)