

Hushed up

Across

- 1/1D Mr Pinko's called anon unfortunately according to 13a 14d 28a (2,5,2,4-5)
- 6 Unfortunately that's just like the French to intervene (4)
- 10 Norm is in love with Helen - well he was (5)
- 11 How do you do a Shakespearian play when one of the books is missing (5)
- 12 Arrest sailor after name given (3)
- 13/14/28 Whoa! Forget about who. Essentially keep schtum. Hush. Not even orally right. That's the arrangement (7,5,5)

- 15 Philistine who got catapulted to fame? (7)
- 17 Panel posing with our cook after the event (10,5)
- 19 Rearrange the furniture around new twinset from Ikea ASAP (2,3,4,6)
- 24 Set fire to Royal barge (7)
- 26 Oranges but no dates - that's one requirement gone west (7)
- 27 Where the players and I find exercise entertaining (3)
- 28 See 13
- 29 La source de notre vie (5)
- 30 Without Tyneside we've got nothing (4)

31 Why there was insurrection in Yorkshire (7)

Down

- 1 See 1 Across
- 2 The invaders will come from the south. Wisdom a posteriori? On the contrary (7)
- 3 Even impress the Dutch (3)
- 4 In Scotland they gang aft agley. Try Schama's England - an Introduction for a change (7)
- 5 Al Gore bats, putting on 50 - and at quite a fast scoring rate (7)

7 Look! No joke's going to be incisive from that far back in time (4-3)

8 Cry for help. Leading seaman has fallen off front of boat (3)

9 Aim to get Al Gore's tailenders out first (4)

14 See 13 Across

16 What 1d has that 2d doesn't (11)

18 Great aunt's hoovering up cream tea with a pig-like sound (5)

20 Clamp down on merry men when leader absconds (7)

21 Jazz up Elgar - use this if it's too loud (7)

22 Takes the plunge, slowly accepting a clumsy kiss (5,2)

23 As well as you and me the Queen's an old City supporter - so are some bankers (7)

25 The weight of the unladen vehicles in the transit area (4)

27 Your flipping number's up by the sound of it (3)

29 Member of the digital community is into e-commerce (3)