

Across

1/12/19/30A/11/23A/3
5/36/37/38/3

A noted author's best-known line, if flawed, wildly assumed satisfaction's a motive enough to put a ring on a finger
(2,2,1,5,11,12,4,1,6,3,2,10,2,1,4,7,4,2,2,4,2,1,4)

- 6 Maggot food (4)
- 10 Runaway heard in Devon (7)
- 11 See 1
- 12 See 1
- 16 Setter's intention to be sick (3)

- 17 An even hedge, say (2)
- 19 See 1
- 23 See 1
- 27 Roman tonic, a fifth of which gives 25 (2)
- 29 Royalty rights withdrawn by record label (1,1,1)
- 30 See 1
- 35 See 1
- 36 See 1
- 37 See 1
- 38 See 1

Down

- 1 Untried hatchet-job to get in (7)
- 2 Ancient tribe from glacial Ulster (5)
- 3 See 1 Across

- 4 Lies with appearance of work schedules (3)
- 5 Doughnut-like hill overlooking state (5)
- 7 Hot on the campaign trail... (7)
- 8 ...after backhander's indication it's a mess (7)
- 9 I turned up with my gong (4)
- 13 By the way (3)
- 14 Confrontational opposition hides soldier (7)
- 15 £2 for a duck sandwich? That's funny (1,1,1)

- 18 Greek leader of the world (3)
- 20 Audible signal to start corralling us evenly (3)
- 21 Echobelly's grandiose opener (3)
- 22 Insecure fiscal arrangement before '99 (3)
- 23 1930s measurement added to prime formula (7)
- 24 Sea salts (7)
- 25 Thus we hear note (3)
- 26 The end of French cinema (3)
- 28 21 (3,4)
- 30 A little high-class - voila! (2-2)

- 31 He drove women to despair (5)
- 32 Lennon's recovery team, right on (5)
- 33 Daisy introduces class to Republicans (5)
- 34 Deranged water fowl is welcome (5)

